LET THE VOTERS ENDOSE & ENABLE A LIMITED VOTING BALLOT.

I am the interested party pro se with notice (I got orders) in VEASEY v PERRY 2:13 cv 193 suggesting a limited voting 2nd ballot for the Texas State House with candidates paying a filing deposit to get on the limited voting ballot in their own and in 2-4 add'l districts.

Trial started Sep 2 in Corpus Christie with follow up in San Antonio. I want to go to San Antonio.

I want the Corpus Christi US District Court to endorse and enable limited voting ballots in some of the US Southern Districts of Texas Counties and let the San Antonio US District Court extend this effort if it chooses to in 2014.

RECENT ENTRIES IN SAN ANTONIO

1241 8-25-14 ADVISORY by USA (Sitton, Jaye entered 8-25)
1244 8-27-14 ORDER re 1241 (Part) The following deadlines will apply to post-trial submissions...relating to the 2011 Texas House and Congressional plans...on discrete issues such as the county line rule, coalition districts, and crossover districts, on or before Oct 2, 14.... The parties should also attempt to address each challenged district in a separate subsection with an appropriate heading for each subsection.

filed his Second Amended Complaint in Intervention (Doc. 893), on September 12, 2013.

2. Defendants admit that this is a redistricting lawsuit and admit, on information and belief, that Mr. Cuellar brings claims under Section 2 of the Voting Rights Act and the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments, but deny the allegations. The Court has dismissed all Fifteenth Amendment claims against the 2011 maps in this case. Defendants admit, on information and belief, that Mr. Cuellar is seeking declaratory and injunctive relief against continued use of any congressional redistricting plan that dilutes the voting strength of Latinos and African-Americans, but deny that he is entitled to any such relief.

3. Defendants admit, on information and belief, that Mr. Cuellar seeks relief under Section 3(c) of the Voting Rights Act, but deny that he is entitled to any such relief.

4. Defendants admit, on information and belief, that Mr. Cuellar seeks declaratory and injunctive relief, but deny that he is entitled to any such relief.

I. JURISDICTION

5. The allegations contained in this paragraph state conclusions of law to which no responsive pleading is required, but to the extent they require admission or denial, they are denied.

6. The allegations contained in this paragraph state conclusions of law to which no responsive pleading is required, but to the extent they require admission or denial, they are denied.
